

Torre Church of England Academy

HOME LEARNING POLICY

Peace, Praise, Potential, Pride, Persevere, Pray

At Torre, the purpose of home learning promotes:

- Good work habits
- A sense of responsibility
- A connection between school and home
- An outlook that learning happens everywhere

Weekly home learning checklist:

Who?	What?	Given out	Handed in
Reception	Reading: Practise red RWI words. Children change their reading book x3 times a week. At least three entries must be made in their blue reading record. RWI Ditty books are sent home twice a week. These are also shared with parents at home.	Beginning of the year. Free reading books- Monday, Wednesday and Fri. From Christmas- Ditty- Twice a week	Checked on Monday, Wednesday and Friday
	Yellow paper task: Wow slip to be completed on a half termly basis. (Extra 'wow' slips are available from the class teachers).	At the start of every term- or when needed.	As and when completed
	Read learning journal with a grown up and talk about it.	Friday	N/A
	Homework is set once every half term. The activity normally involves something practical and family orientated.	Once per half term	